

2008 Annual Report

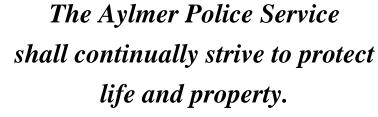

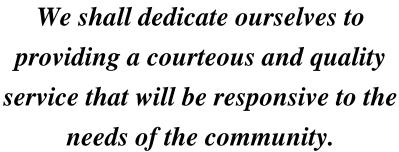

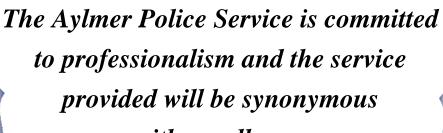

2008 POLICE SERVICES BOARD

To the Aylmer Police Services Board and the citizens of Aylmer

It is my duty to present for your consideration my fourteenth Annual Report, outlining the activities and efforts of the men and women of the Aylmer Police during 2008.

The Aylmer Police continues to build on our partnerships with several community organizations to provide support to our citizens that find themselves victims of crime or involved in the judicial system.

We continue to benefit from our agreement with the O.P.P. and St. Thomas Police for prisoner transports. One of our Special Constables is also assisting with our training needs, utilizing his expertise as a former Ontario Police College instructor.

The Aylmer Police is still benefiting from the Community Partnership Program administered by the Ministry of Community Safety and Correctional Services, which is offsetting the cost of one Constable.

The Aylmer Police continues an enforcement initiative with MTO and OPP. This initiative has greatly reduced the number of unsafe tractor-trailers travelling through Aylmer.

The Aylmer Police has completed the thirteenth year of our community-based Adopt a School program of making periodic visits to the schools in Aylmer. We continue to support community based policing, through our efforts of maintaining the goals and objectives, as set out in our Business plan. 2008 marks the second year of our currant three-year business plan. Goals and objectives are being reassessed on an on-going basis.

A special thank you to our other Ontario Police Service partners and the Ontario Police College for their assistance, in helping us reach our training needs. We continue to participate with the O.P.P. in Defensive Tactics and In-Service training, utilizing O.P.P. and our own training officers. This continues to assist us in meeting our training needs in the most economical manner.

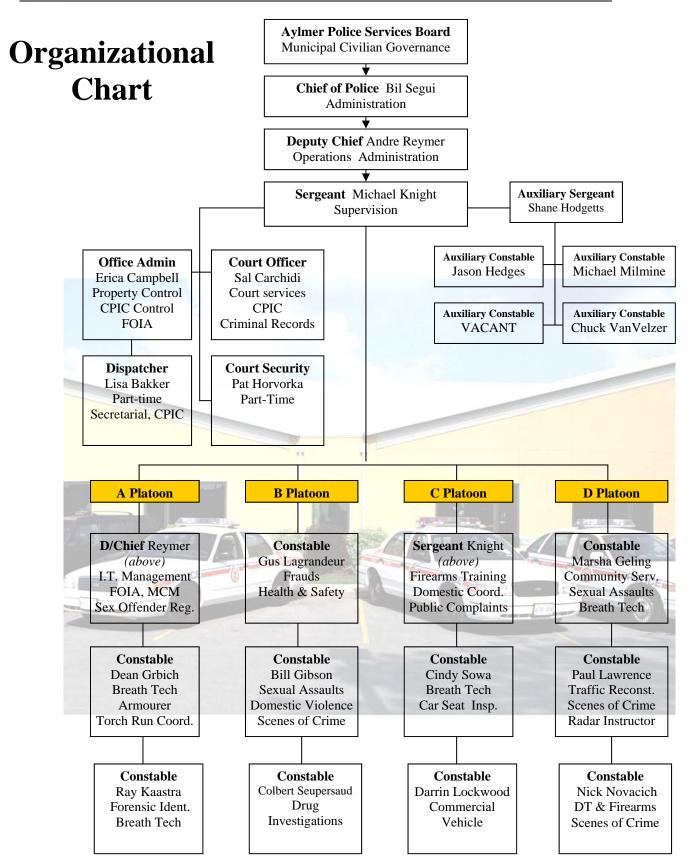

Once again, I must congratulate the officers and members of the Aylmer Police for their professionalism and dedication to the citizens of Aylmer.

I wish to thank the members of the community for their continued support of the Aylmer Police.

Respectfully submitted,

Bil Segui Chief of Police

In 2008 we acquired a dusting cabinet where items could be fingerprinted with safe and secure environmental filtering. This item was a capital expenditure of over $6000 building the forensic tools available to the community. In addition to assisting in the majority of criminal investigations, from photographing scenes to collecting evidence and processing exhibits; the Ident unit also documents community and volunteer events such as parades, fundraisers and departmental milestones.

Ontario Use of Force Model (2004)

The officer continuously assesses the situation and selects the most reasonable option relative to those circumstances as perceived at that point in time.

A total of eight Use of Force Reports were submitted in 2008 as per Provincial Regulations and Aylmer Police Policies and Procedures.

- Three were for destruction of animals and five were submitted for suspect arrests.
- Firearms were deployed on six occasions. Of these, pistols and rifle totalled a combination of four occasions each.
- Firearms were discharged on three of those occasions for animal destruction. Firearms were pointed at suspects on the three other occasions.
- Taser was deployed twice which included being discharged once.
- OC (Pepper Spray) and Empty Hand techniques occurred once.
- Suspect medical attention was required once for minor injuries sustained when using Empty Hand techniques during an arrest.

Of note in 2008, Taser discharge (or prong deployment) occurred once with success. This resulted in suspect compliance with no injuries or concerns with either during, or the post-arrest of the suspect, officer, or victim/witnesses. Analysis of the incident suggests that injuries to the suspect were prevented with use of the Taser rather than had other Use of Force options been used.

Municipal Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (F.O.I.A.)

The Municipal Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act provides citizens with a right of access to records within the custody or control of all municipal public sector organizations, including Police Services. Access to these records is not absolute. There are certain mandatory and discretionary exemptions, which are applied. Details about the operation of the Act and interpretations of the 10 exemption provisions can be found at the Web site of the Office of the Information and Privacy Commissioner (the IPC) www.ipc.on.ca. The Aylmer Police routinely processes requests from the public for access to records either of a personal nature or information in general. Deputy Chief Andre Reymer and Sergeant Michael Knight are designated as FOIA officers.

The Aylmer Police processed 7 requests in 2008. One was for good governance, one for Personal Information, and five for the Office of the Children's Lawyer. All were processed with disclosure provided to varying degrees.

Aylmer Police Auxiliary Constable Program

The Aylmer Police continues to incorporate the Auxiliary Unit to complement its staffing numbers. Auxiliary members assisted in general patrol, parade duties, maintaining security at crime scenes, guarding prisoners, providing guided station tours, assisting with Police Week, displays, as well as helping with the Annual Torch Run for Special Olympics. Auxiliary training was suspended for 2008 due to staffing shortages of regular service members. Training will resume in 2009. Constable Nick Novacich will assist Sergeant Knight with the program. Shane Hodgetts continues to act in the capacity of Sergeant of the Auxiliary Unit. Jason Hedges, Mike Milmine, and Chuck VanVelzer continue to serve in the unit with professional enthusiasm.

The Aylmer Police continue to be a member of the Provincial Auxiliary Co-Coordinators Committee. Quarterly meetings have allowed Aylmer to network with other Auxiliary Units and enjoy the opportunity to expand on training and operational issues. Participation also allows for standardizing the Unit with the rest of the Police Services within the Province. Sergeant Knight and Auxiliary Sergeant Hodgetts both attend the meetings. The Auxiliary unit has once again proven to be an invaluable resource for the Aylmer Police.

SUMMARY

The police assisted the Aylmer Community Foundation with a free bicycle helmet giveaway to Aylmer residents. We participated in Farm Safety Day at Assumption School and raffled off a bicycle from Home Hardware during Police Week in May.

Constable Lockwood continued to mentor youth at a homework club at Davenport School. The officer initiated this on his own with school and police board approval. He received a Citizen's award in 2008 for his work at Davenport School.

The Aylmer Police would like to thank the people within the community for their continuing support and assistance.

Darrin Lockwood, Parent Volunteer Davenport Public School (Aylmer)

"He taught us to believe in ourselves and to never give up on what we want." - A student

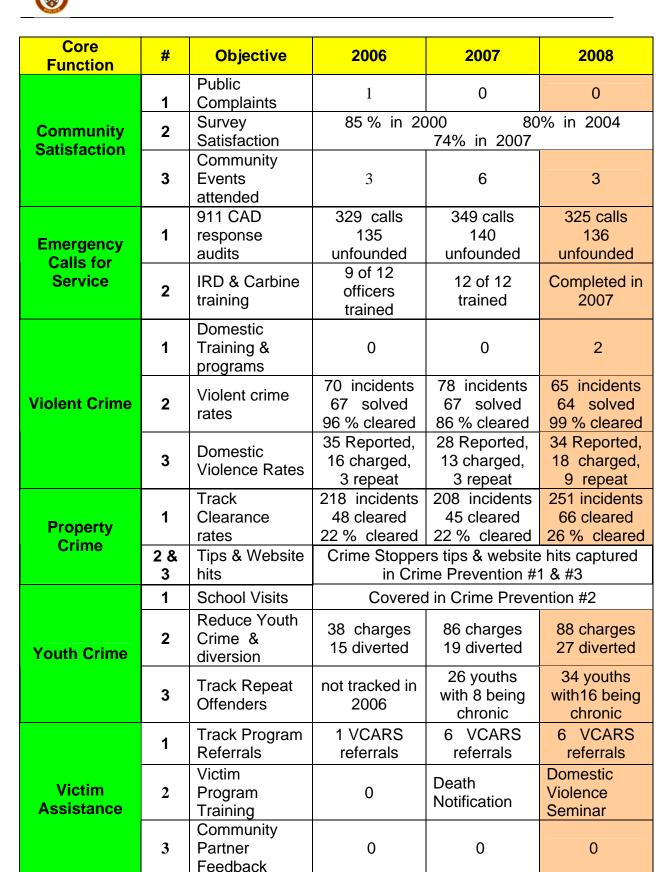

Normally the presence of a police cruiser in the school parking lot is cause for alarm in the school community. Not so at Davenport Public School, where a police car sighting usually means a basketball or volleyball team is practising or that the Homework Club is in session, with help from Police Officer Darrin Lockwood. Both in uniform and in his street clothes, Darrin has been volunteering at the school for three years, wearing many hats to help out wherever he is needed. Most of those hats come with a whistle, as Darrin coaches various teams and coordinates the school's Intramural Basketball League. He has also given up a great deal of his own time to take teams to tournaments and escort them to university games. Beyond the gymnasium, Darrin helps with fundraising events (he is very familiar with the dunking chair) and is a valuable asset to the Homework Club. He provides a wonderful role model for Davenport students as a friend, mentor, police officer and community servant.

2007 to 2009 Business Plan Report

2008 is the second year of the current three year Business Plan. The following chart is a synopsis of the objectives in each of the core functions of the Aylmer Police. A three year comparison was made to shows trends and directions towards goals set. The actual Business Plan and past reports may be accessed on our website www.aylmerpolice.com. Fundamentally the Aylmer Police sought to increase community involvement and proactive policing while maintaining enforcement levels in an effort to reduce crime. Violent & Property crime rates remained constant but with increased clearance rates in 2008. Adults charged increased 30%. RIDE programs doubled in 2008 with extra funding. Large capital expenditures were spread out over the three year plan while the 2008 year end expenses were 1.5% over budget. A new platoon structure has allowed for better utilization of officer scheduling and providing more coverage to the community.

The Business Plan continues to be the goals the Aylmer Police strive to attain. The actual ability to tabulate the results has been complicated by a change in provincial and federal accounting and records management applications. The spirit of the goals are still kept and re-evaluated to comply with a fluid environment. Public confidence and accountability are paramount to the Aylmer Police and its members.

Calls for Service

Aylmer Police provide police coverage and dispatch services 24 hours a day. The station is open to public Monday to Friday 9-5. Nights, weekends, and holidays the dispatch service is contracted to St.Thomas Police. Both agencies use the same data software and as such all Aylmer Police calls for service we are integrated into the provincial database. Peak times for service as seen in the graphs below and consistently occur in the middle and the end of the week. This data only reflects the number of calls, not the type. The average over the 3 years is still 10 calls for service per day
